

24.3.2011

Call Internal Webbrowser

In the DLL Beckhoff.App.Essential.dll exist the definition FormWebBrowser.

The form represents the WebBrowser of the system in the application.

In the address should be entered in "Data2" to invoke the document or Web page to be called.

This entry will be displayed at the first call of the form.

Thus, various PDF documents can be displayed, for example, per instance.